

The FINC is a center of expertise on financial issues within the Polytechnic of Milan. Its mission is to give back Finance its role in supporting the real economy and the business world.

The activities range from research to education, disclosure & advice and are divided into four main areas: Corporate Governance & Risk Management, Social Finance, Public Finance and Finance Seeds, involving all relevant issues of for economic development of the country.